

cmpc | pulp

NEWSLETTER

SHORTNEWS

innovation

sustainability

customer

> CMPC Team Interview Q4 2021

1) How long have you been in the Pulp business? How will your previous experience help you in your new role at CMPC?

I started working for the Pulp and Paper industry in early 2007 in London for a Japanese trading company. It was a completely different experience from what I currently do. However it was a great school and taught me an important perspective of the dynamics and fundamentals of the pulp and paper market. After a few years trading pulp in London I moved to Switzerland to work for the world's largest pulp producer. Since then I have passed through different roles and responsibilities and had the opportunity to live in 3 different countries. All those countries, languages, cultures and experiences gave me an enriching background which will certainly help in future challenges at CMPC.

> Read more

Guilherme Viesi
Chief Commercial Officer

CHILE & CHINA: A SUSTAINABLE PARTNERSHIP

The sixth edition of Chile Week in China was attended by numerous national and international authorities with the aim of strengthening commercial relations between Chilean and Chinese companies as China is the number one destination for Chilean exports. The Seminar addressed issues of sustainability, e-mobility, green energy, connectivity and biomaterials.

> Read more

WE WANT TO ACHIEVE THE IMPOSSIBLE.

That is why we are joining the global initiative Business Ambition for 1,5°C that commits us to the Race to Zero campaign, an urgent call to companies and industries to commit to emission reduction goals aligned with science and to aim for zero net emissions by 2050.

1,5 degrees

is the limit we aim for the increase in global temperature by 2050

0 net emissions

is our commitment as a company by 2050

BUSINESS AMBITION FOR 1.5°C

RACE TO ZERO

> CMPC Pulp gains Dow Jones recertification

Another year among the most sustainable companies in the world. We are proud to be ranked as the second most sustainable forestry and paper company in the world and for the seventh consecutive year to be part of the prestigious international Dow Jones Sustainability Index.

In addition, we were once again ranked as leaders in the DJSI Chile, MILA Pacific Alliance and Emerging Market categories.

Read more

